

When I've read a chapter, I'll think about:

1. PLOT:

What has happened?
What's building up?
Or what's been introduced?

2. CHARACTERS & RELATIONSHIPS:

What has been shown or suggested about these?
Any change, development or reinforcement?

3. INFERENCE SKILLS:

Read between the lines. (Is there a quote that suggests / implies something...?)

Extension:

1. THEMES:

What themes and ideas run through this chapter? In what way?

2. WRITING STYLE & NARRATIVE:

(True feelings/attitude is suggested through the use of...?)

3. STRUCTURE:

Explain why an event/conversation/thought... is important for the rest of the story.....
