

-2-

Who was the leader of Germany?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or excited expression.

-1-

In what year did the war start?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or excited expression.

-4-

Who was the British Prime Minister at the start of the war?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or excited expression.

-3-

Which country did Hitler "take back" first?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or excited expression.

1 September 1939

Adolf Hitler

Poland

Neville Chamberlain

-6-

How did the evacuees travel?

WW2 Quiz

-5-

Why were children evacuated?

WW2 Quiz

-8-

What did the evacuees take with them?

WW2 Quiz

-7-

Who met the evacuees when they reached their destination?

WW2 Quiz

to protect them from the German bombing raids on British cities

evacuees travelled mostly by train, but sometimes also by road (bus)

billeting officers who then allocated evacuees to host families

clothes and a few special items (e.g. toys) and also snacks for the journey

-10-

Why did Britain have rationing?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a pith helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

-9-

What information did evacuees have written on their labels?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a pith helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

-12-

Name a very well-known fruit that most young children only got to know after the war ended.

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a pith helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

-11-

Name 4 foods that were rationed.

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a pith helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

name, age, address, and school's name

food (and other goods) were in short supply - so the government wanted to make sure that everything was shared out fairly

bacon	sugar	butter
meat	fish	cheese
rice	jam	tea
eggs	peas	canned fruit
biscuits	milk	dried fruit
breakfast cereals		cooking fat tinned tomatoes

bananas

-14-

What was the Blitz?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

-13-

Name the two fun characters which were used to encourage children to eat more vegetables.

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

-16-

What were the two types of air raid shelters called?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

-15-

Name 2 cities that were badly bombed during the Blitz.

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised or questioning expression.

Potato Pete & Dr. Carrot intense bombing of British cities by German air force

“The most heavily bombed cities outside London were Liverpool and Birmingham. Other cities places included Sheffield, Manchester, Coventry, and Southampton.”

Anderson Shelters &
Morrison Shelters

-18-

What does A.R.P stand for?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised expression.

-17-

What else did people do to protect their homes?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised expression.

-20-

What was the British air force called?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised expression.

-19-

Name 2 jobs that women had to do during the war.

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a Brodie helmet. He is pointing his right index finger upwards with a surprised expression.

- blacked out windows
- put tape on windows
- packed sand bags

Air Raid Precautions

mechanics	engineers
tank drivers	building ships
plumbers	air raid wardens working in factories driving fire engines ambulance drivers nurses land army (farm workers)

Royal Air Force

-22-

What was D-Day?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or questioning expression on his face.

-21-

What was the German air force called?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or questioning expression on his face.

-24-

Who was the British Prime Minister at the end of the war?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or questioning expression on his face.

-23-

Name two wartime aircraft.

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing his right index finger upwards. He has a surprised or questioning expression on his face.

Luftwaffe

the invasion of Normandy, by the Allies, in June 1944

“Some of the more famous fighter planes during World War II included the German Messerschmitt, the British Spitfire, the Japanese Zero, and the U.S. Mustang.”

Winston Churchill

-26-

What happened to Adolf Hitler?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing upwards with his right hand. He has a surprised or questioning expression.

-25-

Who was the King during the war?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing upwards with his right hand. He has a surprised or questioning expression.

-28-

When did the war end?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing upwards with his right hand. He has a surprised or questioning expression.

-27-

What was the day of celebration called at the end of the war?

WW2 Quiz

A cartoon illustration of a British soldier in a brown uniform and a khaki helmet, pointing upwards with his right hand. He has a surprised or questioning expression.

King George VI

Hitler committed suicide

VE Day (Victory in Europe Day)
&
VJ Day (Victory over Japan Day)

2 September 1945