

Internet Words

App - A small program or game you can use on your phone or tablet, like YouTube or a drawing game.

Browser - A tool (like Chrome or Safari) you use to look at websites on the internet.

Device - Something you use to go on the internet, like a computer, phone, or tablet.

Download - When you take something (like a picture or game) from the internet and save it on your device.

Email - A way to send messages to someone over the internet, like sending a letter.

Emoji - Small pictures or faces you can use when typing to show how you feel, like a smiley face 😊.

Internet - A big network that connects computers all over the world so people can share information.

Link - A special word or picture you can click on to go to another page on the internet.

Online - When your device is connected to the internet and you can use it to look at websites or apps.

Password - A secret word or numbers you use to keep your accounts safe on the internet.

Router - A device that helps send internet from your home to your computer, phone, or tablet using Wi-Fi.

Search - When you use the internet to look for information about something you're curious about.

Search Engine - A tool (like Google or Bing) that helps you find information on the internet by typing in words or questions.

Server - A special computer that stores websites, pictures, and videos and helps send them to your device when you go online.

Social Media - Websites or apps where people can share pictures, messages, and videos with friends or family, like Facebook or Instagram.

Upload - When you share something (like a photo or file) from your device to the internet.

Username - The name you use to log into a website or app, like a special nickname just for you.

Video Call - A way to talk to and see people on your screen using the internet, like FaceTime or Zoom.

Website - A place you visit on the internet, like a page in a book, with pictures, words, and videos.

Wi-Fi - A way to connect to the internet without using wires, like magic air that helps your device go online.